TWO WOMEN JUMP TO THEIR DEATH.

A Third Incinerated and a Wounded Rescuer Fatally Injured By a Leaping Woman.

Financial Loss Was $50,000—One of the Dead Women, Mrs. Underwood, Is From Zanesville, O., and Was Visiting Her Sister During the Holidays.

NEW YORK. Dec. 21.—Two women were killed and another woman and a man were so severely injured that they probably will die as the result of a fire Tuesday at the residence of C. H. Raymond, at West End Avenue and Seventy-third street.

Mrs. Underwood, a sister of Mrs. Raymond, leaped from a second floor window. Her head struck the sidewalk and death was instantaneous. William Doerr, in trying to rescue Mrs. Underwood, sustained a fracture of the skull, which probably will result in death.

Mr. C. H. Raymond followed Mrs. Underwood out of the window and was picked up unconscious.

Mr. Raymond was carried from the house unconscious from smoke.

After the flames were extinguished the body of Harriet Fee was found on the third floor of the house. She had been overcome by the smoke. A superb collection of pictures and tapes owned by Mr. Raymond was entirely destroyed.

The fire was discovered by some passing on the street. When the firemen arrived they could not get into the building, as the flames burst out in such a volume that the men were driven back. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond appeared at windows of the third story front and Mrs. Underwood at a second story window.

The firemen ran a ladder to the upper stories and William Doerr, a laundry conductor, volunteered to run up. Mrs. Raymond and Mrs. Underwood were seen climbing out of the windows and the firemen and the crowd begged them to go back. Doerr was half way up the ladder when Mrs. Underwood jumped from the window, striking Doerr full in the breast and carrying him with her to the street.

Then firemen bore away Mrs. Underwood while others rescued Doerr. Mrs. Underwood was dead and Doerr was dying. The firemen who grabbed Mrs. Underwood had come from Ohio to spend the holidays with their son, Mrs. Raymond. Meantime Mrs. Raymond, who could not be restrained by her husband, had jumped out of the window. She was fatally hurt. Two firemen who climbed a ladder to the third story, rescued Mr. Raymond just as he was overcome by the smoke. Ferguson, the butler, escaped by the rear. His face was badly lacerated by falling while jumping. The body of Harriet Fee was found. All the clothing had been burned off and the corpse was black from the flames. The loss is estimated at $50,000.

Overcome with grief, overcome your cough with colds with One Mantra Cough Cure. It is so good children cry for it. It cures croup, bronchitis, pneumonia, rickets and all lung and diseases. Henry W. Ray, addressing Postoffice.

The Hon. John D. Long, Secretary of the Navy, in his article in "The War," in "The Young Companion" for January 5th, says: "It is impossible, of course, to foretell the future of torpedo-boats, but the rapid progress made in their development promises great progress in the future. The competition much is due, and the number of builders engaged in this class of construction has been increasing every year... But there is a possibility that the torpedo-boats may be superseded or taken another turn. We live in an age of marvels, and it may be that the time will come when navies will be done away with, and the torpedo-boat, as well as the battleship, be known only to history."

NEWSY NOTES FROM NATURE'S GREAT HIGHWAY.

The Bonanza will pass up for Pomeroy to night.

The Keystone State will pass down tonight from Pittsburgh.

The W. F. Nisbet, just off the ways, passed up last night for Pomeroy.

The Buckeye State, from New Orleans for Cincinnati, discharged 13,00 barrels of sugar at Louisville.

All the ice gorges have broken above, and after this mass of frozen water has run out there will be a large amount of open water.

Telegrams from all upriver points indicate a general resumption of navigation. A big rise is reported in the Monongahela River, and the Allegheny, too. The rains seem to have been general, and a state of war may be anticipated, both at Pittsburgh and on the Kanawha. It is probable that coal shipments will be made from both regions. All the packets have dropped back into their places, and are now running regularly.

Yesterday's Commercial Tribune has this clever paragraph: "The millionaire millionaire, James Goldfarb, had a narrow escape from drowning the other day. He stepped to one side of the boat, and his coat caused the craft to career and throw him headlong into the water. He was unable to hold on to him, and with a snatch took on the shore he was pulled out little worse for his unusual bath. He does not desire to try it again, however."

Don't lose sleep.

MAN WHO NEVER SLEPT.

The Peculiar Condition of the Late William Edward Bain, President of the Bain Wagon Co., Kansas City.

KENOSHA, Wis., Dec. 21.—William Edward Bain, president of the Bain Wagon company, whose death is announced from Pasadena, Cal., was familiarly known as the "man who never slept," and it is doubtful if another case like his exists. It is virtually, in fact, that for the last 10 years he did not sleep an hour in his bed. Constant devotion to business was the cause of his sleeplessness, he having been known to remain in his factory up to 10 years ago, as late as 4 and 5 o'clock in the morning, and when he would seek rest he found it impossible to sleep. At that time he practically relieved himself of business cares.

For the greater part of the past ten years it was his custom to take daily trips to Chicago to pass the time away in street car riding and driving during the day, and at night he was always to be found either at a theater or billiard room. He was a man of great energy, was able to get a short nap, the music at the theaters and the clinking of billiard balls alone affording him short spells of repose. He was born in Kinderhook, N. Y., 75 years ago. The cause of his death was pulmonary apoplexy.

KILLED BY A GUARD.

Private Matrice Attacks Two Soldiers While Pistol Practice—Trial by the Civil Authorities.

GREENVILLE, S. C., Dec. 21.—Private Murbridge, 2d West Virginia regiment, was shot and instantly killed Tuesday by Private John Matrice, of the 203d New York regiment, who also shot and wounded Private Hart, of the 2d West Virginia. Murbridge and Hart were at pistol practice in the woods near the regimental camp. Matrice was on guard duty, started to fire at Hart when, it is claimed, Murbridge fired twice at him. Matrice returned the fire, the ball passing through Murbridge's body and striking Hart in the side. Hart denies that either he or Murbridge fired at the gun. Gen. Kline has ordered Matrice to trial over to the civil authorities for trial.

ROBBERS SECURE NOTHING.

An Effort to Hold Up a Train on the Illinois Central Railroad Near Pope's Station, Miss., Was a Failure.

GUNNADAS, Miss., Dec. 21.—Illinois Central train No. 4, southbound, was held up half a mile south of Pope's Station by two men at 10:30 Tuesday night. They suddenly appeared on the engine and compelled the engineer to stop, after which they went back and attempted to break in the express car door. They fired several shots but failed to gain admission. The robbers then fled, obtaining nothing and making no attempt to rob the passengers. No one was hurt.
